21. To help us better understand your pro-life position could you please tell us why you consider yourself to be pro-life, if you have pro-life qualifications that would be helpful for us to know and how you plan to use your elected position to support life.

As an adoptive father and author/sponsor of pro-life legislation in the past I think my record of action speaks to how I use my elected position to support life.

Your response to #21 will be used by the Allen County Right to Life PAC to help determine endorsements, will be available to individuals on request and will be posted on our website, but will not be published in our voter education material because of space limitations.
